

Born in Bowling Green, KY, Duncan Hines began his career as a traveling salesman. His experiences as a salesman helped him to produce popular restaurant and hotel guides. Eventually, this led to a partnership that produced canned, bottled, and boxed products labeled with the Duncan Hines name. In 1956, the first Duncan Hines cake mix was introduced.

We are proud to honor this local legend with a festival every year. Festival events include a Concert in the Park, Uncle Duncan's Duck Derby, an Art Exhibition, and the Adventures in Good Baking Contest. Please see the website below for more information.
